

Training session

Supporting autistic pupils in education

With Aaron Yorke

Aaron Yorke is a qualified specialist teacher, and Birmingham Local Authority Autism Advisor. He also provides training and support through his independent service Accepting Behaviour.

To book a session or to find out more contact Aaron at Acceptingbehaviour@gmail.com

Feedback from previous sessions

"Aaron is amazing. He just really gets it. After hearing Aaron for the first time, I came away feeling everything is going to be alright"

"Your sessions give practical tips and help me feel supported, connected and give me hope."

"You sessions have been a life-line to me and the families we support."

www.acceptingbehaviour.com

ACCEPTING BEHAVIOUR

WHO IS IT FOR & WHAT WILL YOU GET?

This session is for anyone in education wanting to learn new and practical ways to support autistic children

+

It will cover issues around understanding autistic behaviour, and offer advice and strategies to help

+

There will be a dedicated live questions and answers discussion after the session

WHAT IS COVERED IN THE SESSION?

UNDERSTANDING AUTISM

1. Key signs
2. Behaviours
3. Barriers

HOW BEST TO SUPPORT

You will learn effective and practical ways to support autistic children in your school

THINKING DIFFERENTLY

1. Neurodiverse approach to autism
2. Breaking down stereotypes

FURTHER INFORMATION

Further Info provided with websites and resources you can access.